- A label must be affixed to the back with the artist's name, and work title..
- Artwork must be professionally presented.
- "4th Fridays" and the curator reserve the right to reject any artwork that is deemed unsuitable including but not exclusive of work not ready to hang, unprofessional presentation, concern for condition of the piece, representation too different from jpg to actual print.
- Substitutions of artwork are not allowed.
- All accepted work must be for sale and will be subject to a 30% commission if sold. Checks to the artists will be issued from our accounting department within 3 weeks of the sale.
- Although "4th Fridays" will make every reasonable effort to protect your work while it is in our possession, we are not legally responsible for it. Therefore, consider insuring your work while it is in our possession.
- Submitted artwork may be used for exhibition purposes and publicity.
- Work must remain hanging throughout the duration of the "4th Friday" show until 9:00 pm.
- At 9:00 p.m., please take any unsold artwork home through the 400 door check-out process or return at 10:00 am on the Saturday morning after the event.

Your Moral Compass : If potential buyers approach you during the event wanting to cut a deal after the event to save them the 30% commission, not cool, right? And if a buyer should connect with you within 3 weeks after the event because they saw your work AT the event, we ask that you direct the handling of the sale through the event as it would not have happened without our promoting the work.

"4th Fridays" acts as an agent for the artists to submit, exhibit and sell artwork. Sales tax is collected and paid on each sale. Artists are responsible for compliance with their own income taxes on the sale of their artwork.

COPYRIGHT : Artists are responsible for understanding and following any copyright laws and international trade laws that may apply to their work. "4th Fridays" assumes no responsibility for checking copyright permission. We reserve the right to modify these guidelines as circumstances arise.
